

Senior Lawyer – Private Clients for a successful Melbourne based law firm

The Organisation

Our client offers a range of legal services including property, estate planning, wills and estates, family law, banking and finance, business and commercial transactions, bankruptcy and insolvency, commercial litigation, personal disputes and conveyancing.

The Role

The overarching purpose of the Senior Lawyer is to play a significant role in the growth of the 'Private Clients' practice of the business. This will be achieved in two ways;

1. Through the provision of exceptional service, maintaining a strong focus on building sustainable relationships with the existing client base and,
2. Adopt a market facing approach, continually striving to promote the firm in the relevant circles, with the intention of attracting a range of new clients to the firm.

Further, a hard working individual with the ability to apply strict focus to the task at hand whilst equally enjoying the social aspects of the office will be highly regarded. An individual capable of bringing an existing client base will be viewed favourably.

Location

Melbourne CBD.
